

New program tool for the conversion of dynamic charts!

Dear Sirs,

From now on you have the possibility to order the article XMP-NT-129 with us.
In case of an order you will receive:

- 1.) A support-program for the semi-automatic conversion of old dynamic charts (N3DYN) into the new format (W3DYN).
- 2.) An additional special dongle (USB) to protect the software.

Nevertheless we would ask you here to control the new charts, as not all possible combinations can be converted 100 %.
